

The Percy, Anne & David Wood Charitable Trust

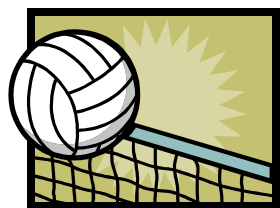

About the Trust

The Trust has been set up to specifically assist young people with disabilities actively engage in sport or the arts.

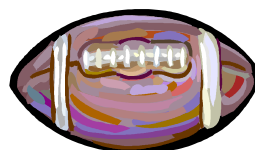

The Trust was inaugurated as a tribute to Percy and Anne Wood who came to Aylesbury in the mid 1930's and their only child David, who sadly died in 1963 just before his 21st birthday. Percy and Ann died in 1993 and 1995 respectively.

Who qualifies for an Award?

The Trust will provide up to £500 for a young person who resides in the town of Aylesbury, is under the age of 25, and has disabilities. They must also have an active interest in either a recognised sport or the arts.

The award will be made based on merit, at the discretion of Youth Focus
